Curious about the

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES

& Ignatian Prayer?

The Loyola University of Maryland will once again offer the opportunity to pray the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola during the 2024-25 academic year.

Our approach will be one that Ignatius himself proposed for busy people – a way to make a prayerful and potentially transformative retreat in everyday life. Over the course of nine months of daily prayer with Scripture, journaling, and regular conversation with a guide, one can experience the same graced movements and discoveries that a privileged few get to make in 30 days of secluded silence.

For more information, please attend a Zoom Meeting:

Zoom Information Session (Thursday, June 20th, or August 8th, 2024; 7-8:30 p.m.). The Zoom meeting link: <https://loyola.zoom.us/j/9671575255>.

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi; the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. This feast is the totality of our faith! This is what makes us Catholic—the Eucharist is the “source and summit of our lives”. This one feast is the summary and meaning of every other Feast Day, Holy Day, Sunday, and daily Mass of every year.

If you attended the Mass Classes or picked up a copy of the booklet by Timothy P. O’ Malley, you saw his introduction to the section on the Liturgy of the Eucharist (p.17), “God loves you. And God wants you to love him with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. The Liturgy of the Eucharist is the way that we remember, experience, and are taken up into the heart of God’s love.” This beautiful understanding of what we should be as we accept Christ’s invitation to come to the Eucharist to become one with him is just amazing. At each Mass, we receive Jesus, not a memorial of Jesus, a “good thought” about Jesus or a symbol of Jesus. We receive Jesus Christ, so it is imperative that we are well disposed, thoughtful and deliberate in our prayerfulness. Take the time to prepare in your heart before the Mass begins. Be attentive to the prayers of the Mass, especially the Eucharistic Prayers (often mistaken as the “priest’s prayers) and reverently approach your Savior and your God in the Blessed Sacrament. Spend time in private, quiet thanksgiving as you return to your pew.

Most importantly, become more and more like this Jesus whom you have received.

In the words of recently declared “Blessed” Carlos Acutis, “people who spend time in the sun become tan. People who spend time with the Eucharist become saints”.

Have a blessed week!!

Fr. Joe Keough fjfk@aol.com

VOCATION MINISTRY UPDATE: WE ARE CLOSING IN ON ROCKY HILL! We need 50 more great people like YOU to take the lead! Have you signed up to pray for 1000 new priests, religious sisters, and Catholic marriages in the Archdiocese of Hartford? Visit

MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

SUMMER MASS SCHEDULE CHANGES: Beginning the weekend of June 1 & 2 through August 31/Sept.1 (for the summer only) our weekend Mass schedule will be: Sat. 4 PM, Sunday 8:30 and 10:30 AM.

Earlier Masses at nearby churches:

St. Mary, Windsor Locks 7:00 AM, and later at 11:00 AM

St. Bernard, Enfield 7:30 AM, and later at 11:30 AM at Holy Family, Enfield

SOME ONE IS IN MY PEW! One of the blessings of the Summer Mass Schedule is that we are coming together from three different Masses into two new ones. The heart wrenching awareness that “my pew at the 11:00 Mass” was also someone else’s pew at 8:00 and or 9:30! You have several options here, find a new pew and possibly a new perspective on the Mass or meet a new person and pray with them. We could be Christ like and welcome one another and enjoy the experience—no matter how challenging of loving the other person as you want to be loved. Just when we get used to being nice to one another, it will be September and we will be back to “our Mass and our pew”. GOOD LUCK!
